

Please do not implement any proposal to lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law. This has been extremely effective in reducing the phone solicitations we receive. It is wonderful answering the phone and knowing it is not someone trying to sell or offer some ridiculous product or something I have not requested.